

RTRA Riders Compete at Langley PRDA Phae Collins Show

Alyssa, Calum and Copper

Alyssa, Nadia and Dusti

Jocelyn and Copper

Saturday June 6th, Instructor Stephanie Meadows and a small, but great group of volunteers, braved the 30+ degree heat along with Copper and Dusti so that 4 of our riders could compete in the annual show.

It was a fantastic weekend for all involved! There were plenty of ribbons, smiles, goals met and new goals set. Our riders left with many ribbons, and most importantly, as sense of accomplishment and pride!

Riders Calum and Emma

Overall, the day could not have gone better. The team looked amazing in the new red RTR shirts, the horses were calm and focused and the riders rode their hearts out. Everyone beamed with delight and were reminded again of just how awesome therapeutic riding can be and that there are no limits to what the kids and their families can do.

A big thank you to Stave Falls Riding Stables for trailering the horses for us again this year. Your service and care is much appreciated.
